

ADRIA FIRESTONE

The Reinvention Architect™ | Keynote Speaker

Top 50 Finalist, Next Top Speaker Tournament, Season 7
— selected from 4,000 international applicants

Reinvention isn't inspiration.

Presence isn't performance.

Both are learnable skills.

Adria Firestone helps women, leaders, and organizations navigate change with clarity, voice, and embodied authority so they can think, speak, and lead from who they are becoming.

Design Your Next Chapter

The Reinvention Architecture™ for Voice, Identity & Forward Momentum

Based on Adria's book, You Are the Artist of Your Life, this keynote helps audiences recognize when an old identity no longer fits and gives them a practical structure to reclaim voice, identity, and authority as they move into what comes next.

Keynote or Interactive Workshop

Presence Under Pressure

The Missing Skill Behind Voice, Breath & Leadership

When the stakes are high, your body often speaks before you do. This keynote or workshop helps audiences use breath, voice, posture, and presence to reset under pressure and communicate with greater authority.

Keynote

Leading Through Change

Clarity, Identity & Forward Momentum

Change is not always the hardest part. Losing clarity is. This keynote gives audiences practical tools to navigate uncertainty, identity shifts, and leadership transitions with stability, direction, and renewed confidence.

Why Book Adria

Adria's work is grounded in decades of international, award-winning performance, more than two decades teaching voice, presence, and performance at the university level, and coaching speakers, professionals, performers, and leaders.

Her sessions create real-time, visible shifts in how people think, speak, and show up, so audiences don't just understand the work. They experience it.

Ideal for: Conferences · Chambers · Universities · Leadership Events · Women's Organizations · Professional Associations · Podcasts

"A force of nature—brilliant, dynamic, and unforgettable."
— John Hoopes, General & Artistic Director, Nashville Opera
